(a) what action Government have taken to curb corruption in the field of Education;

(b) whether Government propose to change Education Policy in the near future as students are not satisfied with the present policy; and

(c) whether it is a fact that the present education policy is creating unemployment in the Society?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (KUMARI SELJA): (a) Appropriate mechanisms already exist in both Central and State Governments to look into charges of corruption in government including the education sector and take suitable remedial measures.

(b) No, Sir. The National Policy on Education, (NPE) 1986 was evolved through a consensual process after an indepth review of the Indian Educational System involving educationists, academicians, teachers, students and others. The Policy was reviewed during 1990-92, through a similar consensual process and suitable modifications were incorporated in it.

(c) No, Sir. It is not correct to say that the education policy is creating unemployment. Employment growth is dependent on growth develops manpower for different levels of economy. Besides, there is already considerable thrust in the NPE, 1986 as modified in 1992 on vocational education with the objective of enhancing individual employability. There is stress also on work experience organised as an integral part of the learning process.
